

Assignment

Internet Technologies

1. How can we combine mobile and web applications so that the application can be worked easily on both? Explain.
2. How files can be read using Nodejs? Explain with the help of an example.
3. What is a search engine? What are its components? Explain its working.
4. Differentiate between blogs and forums.
5. How session & cookies help the website to improve/enhance the user experience?
6. What do you mean by JSON? How is it different from JavaScript objects? Give one example of JSON object.
7. Write a program to create one text box and one button (add button). On the click of this button a text box should get appended to the document.
8. How can we use JQuery function in our code? List down the JQuery methods used for attribute manipulation. Also give one example of each.
9. Discuss the JQuery methods available for DOM traversal.